

Data Requests Policy

The Office of Institutional Research at The University of Southern Mississippi collects, archives, and maintains institutional data for the purpose of analyzing, distributing and presenting summary information. While there is a variety of data available o

