

Deborah Moore, Ph.D.

HCD Ph.D. Alumna - Class of 2011

DISSERTATION TITLE:

America Leads - Mississippi Future Teacher Corps: A Study of Program Completers' Perception of Factors Influencing the Decision to Become and Remain Classroom Teachers

Chair: Dr. Cyndi Gaudet

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Bachelor's Degree

Business Administration
Delta State University

Master's Degree

Business Administration
Delta State University

Doctoral Degree

Human Capital Development
University of Southern Mississippi

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Training and Development
- Healthcare
- Community Relations
- Community Development

Dr. Moore is currently the Director at Delta State University. Previous employment includes Project Manager IV for Delta Health Alliance in Stoneville, MS where she provided technical assistance to communities and organizations regarding healthcare projects. Dr. Moore is a retiree from the state of Mississippi where she served 17 years in community and economic development. She also served as a Project Manager and Project Director for the Teacher Corps director for two programs and as director of the Center for Community and Economic Development. Dr. Moore has extensive work with proposal writing, having secured grants in excess of $15,000,000.00. She is a member of the Mississippi Center for Nonprofits board where she continues to assist nonprofit organizations and communities in training and capacity building.